

The above is the seat back part, one for each side. Remove the small part [lug] next to the wheel and bend the bar round towards the gun. The remaining part [lug] goes under the seat. The two footrests attach under the frame, the elevation pin wheel goes through the frame under the barrel. Please check the photos and remove the extra sprue from the main frame before attaching the wheels. Hope this makes sense Keith@VM